NAME(S) OF ATTENDEES:

Please initial next to each statement, declaring that you understand and agree to any and all prescribed information.

This is an all-inclusive course that is meant to provide each attendant with sufficient information to better gauge their individual ability to enter the craft distilling business and/or to better put together a realistic business plan. We can aid in minor questions and assistance following course attendance. However, if you do require immediate or eventual independent consultation services at any point in time, please contact Paul Tomaszewski for further information regarding these services.
In order to provide you and your party the best course of instruction possible, we begin PROMPTLY at 7:45 am, CST. We highly encourage all attendees that need to travel any measurable distance to make nearby overnight lodging arrangements. We recommend The Sleep Inn & Suites in Oak Grove, KY. This hotel should honor a special rate for the nights before and/or after this course. Contact us if you require further assistance.
Reservation is not complete until full payment is recieved. Each date is expected to be fully reserved at least a month in advance, so we do recommend that you register as soon as possible. Course fee is $800/person ($750/person as prescribed on our website for early registration) for the cost of the course. Registration fee also covers meals during the day of the course, as well as course materials/supporting documents. We accept cash or a check. If you prefer to pay by credit/debit card, there will be a 2% processing fee added to your total. Early registration is the only applicable discount for the course.
I understand that it is completely at the discretion of MB Roland Distillery, Inc. if I am to be refunded any/all part of my registration fee if I am unable to attend this course. Realistic extenuating circumstances regarding my inability to attend this course include such events as; death in immediate family, personal injury and/or major illness, natural disaster and/or substantial inclement weather. Course credit may be given for a future date.

I agree to the above terms and understand that it is my responsibility to act in a professional and safe manner while viewing and taking part in distillery operations during this course.
